Selectmen's Meeting

AUGUST 20, 1985 - DCJ

REQUESTS GUARD RAIL

Kenneth Pacheco of Acushnet Road requested by letter to Selectmen to install a rail guard on Acushnet Road near Harvey Orchard Lane. Mr. Pacheco wrote:

"In the past several months there has been a total of FIVE accidents. One car of Mr. Grant Faber has been totalled in one of the accidents. Two weeks ago my wife's car was totalled and there was over $500. worth of damage to my home. Then during the past week another vehicle left the road destroying two trees in Mr. Faber's yard and destroying landscaping in my yard and landing within 2 feet of my FRONT DOOR.

"On two or three other occasions cars have left the road and wiped out areas of lawn and destroyed landscaping. These incidents along with the MANY MANY numerous near misses require that we request some kind of safey rail be placed so that cars traveling along Acushnet Road will not leave the roadway and enter into our yards."

Selectmen agreed that the stretch of road has been the scene of numerous accidents and does need protection. They will forward Mr. Pacheco's request to Highway Surveyor Manuel Nunes for his consideration.

BIG BUS TRIPS

Harold Roeder, our trip coordinator, announces three Big Bus trips: a Lowell trip on September 27th, a foliage trip on October 9th, and a Halloween Hop trip on October 30.

The first one of these, the Lowell trip, is a trip that we have been thinking of making for some time, and should be one of the most fascinating and historically interesting of our many trips. In Lowell we will see restoration of the great mills and old public buildings, see and possibly ride on the Merrimack Canal, which was first dug in the 1820's to supply waterpower to the great mill complex, Lucy Larcom Park, named after a "Mill Girl", and the Boott Mill Boardinghouse, showing how the "mill girl" labor force lived. Among the many attractions will be a trolley ride in an antique restored open trolley car. There are many other attractions too numerous to mention. You will buy your own lunch. Cost of the trip is only $10.00 with no admission charge.

Our annual foliage trip will be on October 9th. We will take a different trip (Route 119 to Route 12). Cost will be Cooperation is the hallmark of any small town. It was in this spirit that several area organizations and people banded together to volunteer their time and help the Friends of the Mattapoisett Library enjoy such a successful first fund-raiser. At the September meeting of the Friends we will be donating $225.00 to the Library made by selling food at the Craft Fair on August 17th.

We would like to give our grateful thanks to the Mattapoisett Inn for donating their buttery croissants and to Gaspar's Sausage Company, Inc. for their delicious linguica. We would also like to express our sincere appreciation to Sam's Bakery, Davidson's Meat Products, The Butchery and White Rock Products Company for selling their products to us wholesale. Special thanks to Mary Ann and Paul Amoruso who arrived at the Fair at 8:00 to set up and man the booth ALL day. Thanks also to the unsung heroes who baked, provided equipment, and worked at the food and postcard tables throughout the day: Jennifer Prouty, Mary Callan, Louise Preissler, Hannah Ostrye, DeeDee Smith, Anne Lima, Luz Jackivicz, Marilyn Searle, Ellen Driscoll, Sarah Ellms, and from Girl Scout Troop #29, Leigh Gaspar and Joanne Amoruso. Dee Langevin deserves special praise for selling the most postcards with her "free cucumber with every purchase" strategy. Now that's Yankee ingenuity!

The Friends of the Mattapoisett Library began in September of 1984. It is our desire to give the Library, its staff and the Trustees the support it so well deserves, and to volunteer our services in any way possible. We have volunteers working part time in the Library typing, filing, "reading" the stacks, shelving books, running the movie projector, helping out with the reading programs, cleaning records, and working anywhere our help is needed. We have also sponsored a writing and drawing workshop with children's author Lissa McLaughlin and a romance novelist, Emma Goldrick. The Friends also ran the Pre-School Storyhour that entertained so many little ones during the past year.

Anyone interested in joining us is more than welcome! Please attend our September 11th meeting at 7:00 at the Library. For more information please call me at 758-9403.

Once in a Lifetime!

The chance of a lifetime...to fly in a 1955 Beechcraft doing aerobatics while a party of friends watches from below. Or a tuna fishing expedition with Captain Bill MacDougall and Dick Arthur as first mate. How about a tour of Marion by air, or a day at ABC studios in New York City and an introduction of "20/20" celebrities. Here's an opportunity for a luncheon cruise for four on a thirty foot sailboat. Consider a round of golf for two with a cart at the Kittansett Golf Club. Imagine a pool-jacuzzi party for twelve people, catered and served by Spirits, including wine and champagne on Butler's Point.

All these items and more are going up for auction Saturday, September 7th, at Tabor Academy's Hoyt Hall, Front Street, Marion. Items can be previewed at 6:30 p.m. with the bidding underway with licensed auctioneer Joe Thompson at 8 p.m. An itemized list of

DISCRIMINATION LAWS-SCHOOL SYSTEM

Recently passed laws forbid your school system to discriminate against its staff and students on the basis of sex, national origin, marital status, race, color, or religion. These laws outlaw discrimination in school admissions, admission to courses of study, guidance, course content and extracurricular and athletic activities.

If you have any questions or concerns re-

Verification of School Absence

The Mattapoisett School Committee feels that it is in the best interest of school children attending the Center and Old Hammondtown Schools to have some verification of any absence from school.

We want to avoid a situation where the parent/guardian assumes the child is in school when in fact he/she might not be in attendance. Likewise, the school should not assume that when a child is not in school that the child is home with parental knowledge.

Therefore, we urge parents to contact the school as early as possible, after 8:15 a.m., on the morning that their child is absent. Similarly, the school will call any parent or guardian at home or work to verify absences of children for whom we have not received explaining calls. This policy will effectively inform the home and school as to the status and cause for student absences.

Mattapoisett Kindergarten

On the first day of school, Wednesday, September 4th, there will be an Orientation Day for the Kindergarten students. The schedule for the thirty minute orientation sessions appears below. Students accompanied by parent(s) will visit their assigned Kindergarten classrooms and meet their teacher as well as some of their classmates. Classroom assignments will be posted on the bulletin board at the Barstow Street entrance to the school.

Parents who have not completed their child's registration are asked to bring their child's certificate of birth and required health data (medical examination)

CONFERENCE ON DRUG ABUSE AND EDUCATION

Many in our community watched the evening news coverage on August 8 of the conference for high school students and educators, "Peers Educating Peers", held at Bentley College featuring First Lady Nancy Reagan. We were among over 300 participants who attended the conference.

There is a clear epidemic of drug abuse and resulting tragedy in America. We learned a great deal that we would like to share with our community.

Much of the information about street drugs, particularly marijuana and cocaine, being passed on from adult to adult and to young people is inaccurate. The facts learned from the most recent and most highly reliable scientific research were presented at the conference.

*Marijuana has highly destructive physical effects upon users and their lives. There are over 420 chemicals in marijuana, increasing to 2000 when smoked. Regular use of marijuana results in permanent cell death, including powerful effects on brain cells. Most drugs are eventually flushed out of the body. In a regular marijuana smoker, the fatty tissues of the body become saturated with fat soluable chemicals.

*It is clear that attitudes and beliefs must change about addiction. The young person who tries drugs in response to peer pressure, then continues because of pleasurable side effects, may continue in times of stress. Drugs taken to deal with problems begin to cause problems, which the person deals with by escalating drug use. This is an addictive cycle!

*Cocaine is more than a drug, it is a killer. When cocaine enters the blood it produces a profound stimulating effect on the brain, releasing natural chemicals and creating a biochemical imbalance in the brain leading to dependency on the drug.

The best information available now is that the facts about drugs should be taught to children in grades 5 and 6. The goal of this instruction is to prevent experimentation. Pleasure is the most powerful factor in the early stages of drug use and the average age of first experimentation is between 12 and 14 years.

In summary, we learned that all drug use is drug abuse. The task is to educate and re-educate:

*Do not expect experimentation.
*"Moderation" is not possible.
*There is no such thing as responsible use.

"Peers Educating Peers" implies that people who can best articulate the facts about drugs and "connect" with others are their own age mates. We plan to increase efforts in our school to do this. We also hope to establish opportunitites for older students to work with younger students in educating for a drug-free youth.

WAREHAM: Edna St. Vincent Millay, Pulitzer Prize winning poet, died 35 years ago. Her work is often compared with the Elizabethan romantics, due primarily to its powerful lyricism, but her strongly feminist personality resounds within the work, giving it a comfortable berth in the contemporary idiom.

The Gateway Playhouse opened "A Lovely Light" August 18 and will present it again August 29 and September 1 at 8 p.m. This dramatization of Millay's poems and letters, written by actress Dorothy Stickney, provides a panoply of emotions and moods. While certainly an entertaining and informative paean to its subject, "A Lovely Light" does present a difficult challenge-

The actress portraying Millay must also act as narrator of various biographical details and anecdotes threading through the narrative. Recounting these bits of information and also reciting poems and letters, as Millay, presents a litany of dramatic transitions to differentiate among the moods. Speaking in both first and third person voice creates a rich but sometimes bumpy theatrical texture and it demands an actress of exceptional versatility.

Kay Carter Blaha, well-known to Gateway audiences and one of its founding members, is particularly suited to the role. She has a down-to-earth quality which roots her portrayal in the real world, breathing life into the legendary poet. This is not an impersonation, but rather an evocation of a fragile and often sickly woman, revealed primarily through letters to her mother and sisters.

The poems illuminate Millay's more ethereal nature. In Act I those readings occasionally border on the melodramatic, but the balance of material rings truer as the play progresses. By the middle of Act II, through to the play's end, Ms. Blaha is completely captivating.

Director George W. Hayden has guided the actress carefully through the pitfalls of pacing, through there are instances when a transition is ill-timed; a moment that should hang in the air, to be savored and allow time for the actress to smoothly segue into the next phrase, rather than be crowded by it. The action moves at an entertaining clip, however, and Ms. Blaha has such presence as to rivet one's attention.

"A Lovely Light" has been given a warm and gentle production. It is a most gratifying evening of theater, laced with humor, pathos and humanity.

Jan de Hartog's marital farce, "The Four-poster", is a delightful play with searingly amusing insights into marriage, relevant to the 1890's of the play's beginning, clear through to its end in the mid-1920's and beyond until today and probably a good portion of the future. Wise, witty and always enjoyable, "The Fourposter" pushes just enough to create believable tensions and then resolves just enough to create a comfortable reality.

It is a gentle theatrical experience, never forcing the viewer into an uncomfortable situation. Director Neils Miller strikes a superb balance of farce and naturalism which is most entertaining. Miller gives his cast interesting bits of business to attend to while they maintain characters that are eminently watchable.

Sandee Freitas and Michael Guilizia, who appeared earlier in Gateway's season in "A Hatful of Rain", are here reunited. Their chemistry in that intense drama did not belie their knack for comedy, as they appear to romp through the entire evening.

Ms. Freitas and Mr. Gulizia have parallel character development, beginning as naive newlyweds, sharing life together as though it were a grand banquet. De Hartog's witty dialogue sparkles between these two talented performers. Ms. Freitas, who first appeared in the riotously funny "Father's Day", knows a thing or two about comic delivery. She's a wise young wife, eager to share life's adventure with her more conservative husband. Ms. Freitas has never been better or more appealing.

Mr. Gulizia, in only his third stage appearance after two dramatic roles, as Stanley in "A Streetcar Named Desire" and as Johnny in "A Hatful of Rain", is here given the opportunity to take a lighter look at life. He rises fully to the occasion. Gulizia's masculine brand of naivete is every bit a match for the more feminine, offered by Ms. Freitas. His pomposity and pride are completely realized and underscoring it all is the very strongly wrought notion that here is a man who loves his wife, no matter what he might say or do. Mr. Vulizia has remarkable stage instincts and exhibits more facility with each role he is given. His range is broadening, as an actor, and his pairing with Ms. Freitas is to the benefit of both.

Robert Scott and Paul Arthur Wirth have created a wonderful bedroom setting, detailed with period decor and very pleasing to the eye. However, as in every other show Gateway has offered this season, the main problems are technical, especially in the area of lighting.

"The Fourposter" is offered again August 30, 31, and September 6 and 7 at 8 p.m.

Reservations for either play can be made by calling 295-6768.

Mosquito Control

The Plymouth County Mosquito Control Project has announced the receipt of a piece of equipment that it believes will have a great impact on its ability to combat salt marsh mosquitoes.

The Project has acquired a Smalley 808 backhoe. This unique piece of machinery was designed and constructed in England by Richard Smalley. The company almost custom builds its machines. Smalley equipment was originally designed for use in the water-logged peat bogs of England. Now, the Smalley 808 is being designed with the cranberry bogs and salt marshes of this nation in mind.

The importance of the Smalley 808 lies in its ground pressure. Conventional backhoes have ground pressures of over 3 lbs. psi, while the Smalley's ground pressure is only 1.7 lbs. psi. Where conventional backhoes find it almost impossible to gain access to the soft, wet, marshes, the Smalley finds them to be little challenge and displays a great maneuverability. Most important is that the Smalley will not damage the marshes' natural environment.

The Project expects the Smalley 808 to be a vital part of its Open Marsh Water Management Plan for area salt marshes. This concept attempts to maximize natural controls on mosquito populations and minimize the need to use insecticides in these areas.

Basically, the plan attempts to give small fish access to mosquito breeding areas where they can feed on the mosquito larvae.

The Project is awaiting its final permit from the Army Corps of Engineers before it can begin its salt marsh work. The Project is hopeful that the permit will be granted in the next few weeks.

contributing to the Lloyd Center which has, under the direction of Dr. Alan Lee Hankin, already made a significant start in implementing, monitoring and researching the natural resources of our coastal region, providing vital information to both the private and public sectors. The education program of the Lloyd Center has reached thousands of students in the last few years and helped them understand how to manage the environment. Actually, this small corner of southeastern Massachusetts is setting an example for the rest of the country in terms of environmental commitment and concern. The Lloyd Center, the Children's Museum, the Westport River Defense Fund, the Center for Marine Excellence at SMU - between them are providing a full spectrum of research and education which is, in some way, benefiting and enriching the life of every individual living in the area." This challenge gift, which provides a $2.00 match for every $1.00 donated to the Center between May 15, 1985 and December 31, 1985, coincides with the incorporation of the Center as a separate not-for-profit tax deductible organization. Until this past May the Center was owned and operated by the Dartmouth Natural Resources Trust.

The official name for the new corporation is The Katharine Nordell Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies, Inc. Named in honor of Karen Lloyd's mother, the Center has grown from an empty building and 55 acres of woods, marsh and fresh water wetlands to a fully-staffed center for education and coastal resource research in southeastern Massachusetts. Each year many thousands of people (over 10,000 in 1984) enjoy the trails, views and the exhibits at the Center. During 1985 the Center estimates that more than 6,000 student-days of educational programs will be offered.

According to Raymond C. Lantz, Jr., President of the Lloyd Center Board of Directors, Ms. Loyd "has provided us with another example of her commitment to the cause of conservation research and education regarding the coastal environment in our region." Mr. Lantz continued, "To put the magnitude of this contribution into perspective, consider the implications of this matching gift. Each $1.50 donated equals a full day of education for a student visiting the Center, including a preparation session for his or her teacher. Each contribution of $750. will fund one of our Mini-Grants for an entire year."

The Lloyd Center Mini-Grants have supported and promoted research on the coastal environment in southeastern New England. Graduate students, college and university faculty have received these grants from the Lloyd Center. Projects funded under this program include a study of the problems of salt water intrusion into drinking water and wells, sedimentation problems at the Slocum River and Allen's Pond inlets, an inventory method for all salt marshes in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, mapping all eel grass beds in Buzzards Bay and other projects which teach us something about the past, present and future of our coastal zone.

Mr. Lantz added, "We have a unique opportunity to triple the impact of new donations to the Lloyd Center. The Center now has its own 501 (c) 3 I.R.S. status so contributions are fully tax-deductible. Also, remember that contributions from companies and businesses are very important to Donations to the Center can be restricted to support its many education offerings, research efforts, for building and grounds repair and maintenance or any aspect of the Center which has special significance to a donor. Ms. Lloyd will match contributions up to a total of $50,000. Her total contribution when this goal is reached will be $100,000. For additional information regarding gifts to the Center or this special challenge gift, Dr. Alan Hankin, Executive Director of the Lloyd Center, can be contacted at 990-0505. The Lloyd Center is located at 430 Potomska Road, South Dartmouth, and the building is open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday, and the grounds open 365 days a year from dawn to dusk.

The original Broadway production of this all-time favorite David Merrick musical starred Anna Marie Alberghetti, Jerry Orbach and Kay Ballard. "Carnival" opens on an uncurtained stage which is slowly lit up to see a carnival erected right before your very eyes. The jugglers, animal acts, aerialists, clowns and dancers perform and delight us as well as the main character Lili, a lonely orphan who has run away to join the gay and glamorous carnival life. Lili becomes the pawn in a fierce rivalry for her affection between Marco the Magnificent, the troupe's musician, and Paul Berthalet, a puppeteer with a game leg. Paul talks through his magical puppets who are the most charming characters in the play. The hauntingly wonderful musical theme, "Love Makes the World Go Round", captures the mood of the carnival people and their enchanting life; truly America's most magical musical.

This production is directed by Broadway NY Director Rosanne Weeks; musical direction is by Elaine Baker and choreography is by Beverly Brown.

The cast is star-studded with acting talents gathered from the entire southeast region of Massachusetts.

The Priscilla Beach Theatre Youth Orchestra will accompany and orchestrate the musical score of "Carnival" under the direction of Elaine Baker, Ron Sylvester, David Cross, Paul D'Angelo.

For further information about the show and reservations call the Theatre at 224-4888.

Good nutrition involves more than selecting the right foods. Proper handling helps preserve the nutritional content of foods.

Temperature and light affect nutrient retention. It is important not to overcook or to use too much water. Use foods when they are fresh and avoid bruising them. Store foods under appropriate temperatures. Try to incorporate cooking water and meat juices in recipes.

of interested people all across the country. Current magazines feature herb information and recipes on a regular basis.

Herbs are often shown in formal and casual gardens, and are frequently grown in pots and planters placed on a sunny kitchen window sill. With herbs grown in outside gardens, proper harvesting and storage are important for maximum use of the herbs during the non-gardening season.

Herbs should be planted in the most accessible part of the yard or garden.... right outside the kitchen door if possible. There they will be easy to get to and ready to use any time.

Harvesting & Storing Herbs: The Herb Society of America recommends the following guidelines as the best way to harvest and store herbs.

* Herbs can be harvested at any stage of their growth, but are best if harvested when their oils are at their peak. Flowering herbs should be harvested while in bloom.
* Herbs harvested for later use may be frozen or dried.
* To dry herbs, spread over a wire screen or on any device which allows air to circulate around them. Some herbs with long stems can be tied or held together with a rubber band and hung upside down to dry.
* While the herbs are drying, they should be stored in a warm, dark place.
* When completely dry, place the herbs in airtight containers. Use either jars with tight screw lids or the appropriate size food storage bags.
* Store away from heat and sunlight to preserve their full flavor.

Using Dried Herbs:

* Herbs which have been dried for a long time can be revived by soaking ten minutes in lemon juice.
* Crush dried herbs gently with a mortar and pestle or use your thumb and the palm of your other hand.
* When substituting dried herbs for fresh

Freezing Herbs: Some herbs can be stored frozen. Gather herbs when they are at their peak. Trim and wash. Pat dry, then package in desired quantities in storage bags; label and freeze. Frozen herbs are useful in any way you would use fresh or dried herbs.

Popular Seasoning Herbs: Try mixing and matching herbs to suit your own taste or prepare your own special blends to use or give as gifts. Following are some popular herbs, strengths, suggested storage and use ideas.

Bay Leaf -- stews, soups, marinade, in pickling.

Combine equal parts of the following dried herbs: mint (spearmint, orangemint, or applemint), chamomile, and rosemary. Use 1 teaspoon of the herb mixture to 1 cup boiling water. Steep for 10 minutes and serve.

Sage Tea: Sweeten tea with honey or maple syrup. Very good for the throat. Steep 1 teaspoon dried sage in 1 cup of boiling water for 10 minutes and serve.

All-Purpose Herb Mixtures: Very good with meat, eggs, stuffing, or mixed with butter and spread on crusty baked bread.

Combine equal parts of the following dried herbs: thyme, rosemary, parsley, lemon balm and basil.

Herb Vinegar: Depending on the type of vinegar used, different herbs will yield appealing blends. With white vinegar, try chives, tarragon, mint, or salad burnet. With apple cider vinegar, try an herb blend, or mint, basil, or garlic. For wine vinegar, use a basil and garlic mix.

Crush or bruise three handfuls of fresh herbs for each half gallon of vinegar. Place the vinegar in a pot on the stove. Heat thoroughly, but do not boil. Pour hot vinegar over herbs in storage jar or bottle and cover tightly. Shake often. Store for four to six weeks. Strain into smaller bottles, discarding herbs. Cap and store till needed.

Bath Herb Packets: For a relaxing and fragrant bath, six packets make a nice gift. Combine equal amounts of the following dried herbs: mint, rosemary, thyme and lavender. For each packet fill a four-inch square muslin bag with the mixture and sew the open side shut.

Attach the ends of a six-inch strip of ribbon to two corners of the packet to form a hanging loop. To use the bath herbs hang the packet from faucet and let hot water flow through it. Then add the packet to the bath.

Bath herbs are not reusable.

Heritage Plantation

PUPPET WORKSHOP TO PERFORM

The Puppet Workshop will perform at Heritage Plantation of Sandwich on Sunday, September 1st, at 2 p.m. on the outside concert stage. A performance of "Beauty and the Beast" will delight visitors to the Museum. The Pandemonium Puppet Company originally scheduled for this date has cancelled its performance.

Puppets used in the Heritage Plantation performance will be Muppet-type puppets. This show will mark the first time that the Puppet Workshop has performed on Cape Cod.

The Company has toured all over New England, especially visiting in the western part of Massachusetts where they work closely with the New England Puppetry Series at Amherst. The Rhode Island based company was formed in 1972. They employ three full-time puppeteers and are the largest puppet theater in New England. The Puppet Workshop recently received a $15,000 grant from the Rhode Island Department of Children and Families through its Children's Trust Fund to produce 125 shows entitled "Know When to Say No". The idea evolved out of value shows done on specific themes for the Providence School Department.

Funding for this performance was provided in part by a grant from the Massachusetts Council on the Arts and Humanities and the New England Foundation for the Arts through the National Endowment for the Arts.

Membership, as well as admission tickets to the Museum for the day, will be honored for this performance and will include admission to all the Museum buildings, exhibitions and grounds. Tickets are $5. for adults, children under 12, $2., five and under are free. The Museum encourages families to enjoy a picnic lunch in the picnic area outside the Main Gate. Picnicking is not allowed on the Museum grounds.

Alcohol Awareness Conference

FOR PLYMOUTH COUNTY ALCOHOL LICENSE HOLDERS

Governor Michael S. Dukakis and District Attorney William C. O'Malley, in cooperation with the Governor's Highway Safety Bureau, will be conducting an Alcohol Servers Awareness Conference for all Plymouth County alcohol license holders on Monday, September 9th, at the Sheraton Inn and Conference Center in Plymouth.

The day-long conference will focus on situations that all bars, restaurants and package stores face when an intoxicated patron or an underage patron orders alcohol they should not be served. The vendor risks losing a customer or creating an embarassing situation if the customer is refused. But the vendor risks loss of license, civil liability, potentially even criminal prosecution if the person is improperly served.

District Attorney O'Malley stated that "it is vitally important for the license holders to know how to meet their responsibilities to the public, while protecting themselves. An ounce of prevention is worth more than a pound of cure. I would much rather try to prevent a tragedy through education than

Labor Day Traffic

SPEED LIMIT TO BE ENFORCED

The Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, anticipating heavy traffic over the Labor Day weekend, issued a warning to motorists that the 55 mile per hour speed limit will be rigidly enforced along its 135 mile roadway.

Chairman John T. Driscoll said, "State police from Troop 'E' who patrol the turnpike will augment regular radar teams in order to discourage excessive speeding." In addition, radio-equipped emergency service patrol vehicles will assist police in locating and assisting motorists in disabled vehicles and a full force of toll collectors will be at all interchanges across the turnpike. Chairman Driscoll also said that "the Howard Johnson and Burger King Restaurants along the turnpike will provide free coffee to patrons of the turnpike to promote safe driving". The gesture is intended to remind motorists that rest stops and coffee stops can help to keep drivers alert, thereby improving driving performance. Certificates will be distributed at toll plazas allowing motorists to be served coffee without charge from 10:00 p.m. on Monday, September 2nd, through 7:00 a.m. on Tuesday, September 3rd.

Driscoll added, "It has been proven that compliance with the 55 mile per hour speed limit has reduced fatalities by at least 10% annually along our nation's highways. It is especially important during this weekend that all motorists, without exception, limit their speed to this legal limit. We are determined to enforce this law. In doing so, we will achieve a safer weekend for all."

(ABWA) will hold a Fall Enrollment Event on September 4th at 7 p.m. at the Whaler Motor Inn. According to Chapter President Susan Whitehead, the event will revolve around a theme that will focus on the growing spirit of ABWA to unite working women for personal and professional advancement in today's ever-changing business world. ABWA has over 2,100 chapters nationally that may have local enrollment events in September.

Founded in 1949, ABWA is an influential national organization with a membership exceeding 110,000 women who are employed in all aspects and on all levels of business throughout the United States and Puerto Rico.

The national association is dedicated to the professional, educational, cultural and social advancement of women. Last year, ABWA chapters awarded more than $2.5 million in scholarships to women students. In addition, the ABWA national scholarship fund awarded more than $400,000 during the same period.

Women who are employed are eligible for membership. There is an open invitation to the September meeting. For information about ABWA and this special event, interested business women should contact any of the following: Susan Whitehead, 678-3611; Sue Owens, 999-3364; or Joanne Inman, 748-0373.

THE HOME OWNERS ADVANTAGE

SOCCER SHOES THAT ADD A NEW DIMENSION TO THE GAME:

TECHNOLOGY.

Forefoot Flax Bars let your feet bend naturally as you run.
Holding it by its toe and heel, bend a New Balance Soccer Shoe. See how it bends where your foot bends in running. At the front or ball of the foot. Naturally. But, do the same with any conventional shoe, and you'll discover that it bends in the middle, like a banana, not like your foot. As a soccer player, you'll do more running than anything else. In light of that fact alone, New Balance would be the only shoe for you, even without its other fine features.

Unique insart guards against cleat impact, supports the foot.
Lift out the Cleat Guard Shield Insert from a New Balance Soccer Shoe and see how this unique foam innersole molds to your foot, enhancing fit and stability. Then turn it over to see the hard, lightweight shield that protects you from cleat impact, reducing the shock — and fatigue — your feet can suffer when they strike the ground. New Balance cushions and supports your foot while it makes cleat shock a thing of the past.

Width sizing.
New Balance Soccer Shoes are available in a range of widths so you'll get a perfect fit. You'll get better fit and feel with little or no break-in.. Most soccer players discover that — with the better fit and comfort of New Balance — they play better. Doesn't it make sense to fit the shoe to your feet, not the other way around?

AVAILABLE IN WIDTHS FOR A MORE PERFECT FIT
SIZING

Flaxtandad™ Saddle adds lataral support.
On the sides of the shoe, the two wide strips of leather to which "N's" are sewn are another unique feature of New Balance Soccer Shoes — The Flextended Saddle. When you lace your shoes, this saddle actually wraps your foot in extra support: superior lateral support for quick starts and sudden turns, as well as added arch support.

And that's not all!
New Balance has built many other comfort and performance features into these shoes. Rigidity Spines — the two raised ridges on the outersole, add support to the arch and heel. Padded collar and tongue for comfort, and uppers made of the finest lightweight leathers, like kangaroo. And the top-of-the-line New Balance SC906 has something no other soccer shoe has ever had — a patented Motion Control Device® that anchors the heel during sharp turns and pivots and protects against ankle and knee injuries.
